INDEX OF PRINCIPAL MATTERS

IN THE STATUTES CONTAINED IN VOLUME IX.

PREFACE TO THIS VOLUME.

THE NINTH VOLUME OF THE STATUTES OF THE REALM contains the Statutes from the Commencement of the Seventh Year of Queen Anne, A.D. 1708, to the End of the Reign of the same Queen.

IT is proper to observe, that the Year of the Reign of Queen Anne which in this Authentic Edition of the Statutes is intituled the Thirteenth Year, is, in the Common printed Editions, called 12 Ann. stat. 2.: in conformity to the Principle laid down by the Authority under which this Great Work has been hitherto prosecuted, the Record has on this, as on all other Occasions, been consulted, and it has been found that the Roll which commenced with the Act for granting a Land Tax for the Year 1714, is indorsed, First Part 13 Ann. It has been thought fit, however, to continue the Reference from the Chapters, which in this Edition are designated as of 13 Ann., to the corresponding Chapters that are stated in the Common printed Editions as of 12 Ann. stat. 2.

THREE Engravings, the First, of the Act, For preserving the Privileges of Ambassadors and other public Ministers of Foreign Princes and States; the Second, of the Act To make an Attempt on the Life of a Privy Counsellor in the Execution of his Office to be Felony without Benefit of Clergy; and the Third, of the Act For settling the Precedence of The most Excellent Princess Sophia, Electress and Duchess Dowager of Hanover, of the Elector her Son, and of the Electoral Prince the Duke of Cambridge, are inserted respectively at Pages 81, 479, and 556, of this Volume.

LONDON,
March, 1822.

JOHN RAITHBY,
SUB-COMMISSIONER.

CV. Commissioners to choose their own Clerk, and to have the same Power as by the Cess Act of 6th Nov. 1706, &c.;

Which said Commissioners shall have Power to choose their own Clerk and to do every other Thing concerning the said Supply as is prescribed and appointed by the Cess Act of the Sixth of November One thousand seven hundred and six and other Acts made in any former Parliament of Scotland to which the said Act of the Sixth of November One thousand seven hundred and six doth relate holding the same as if herein repeated

CVI. Execution done as by said Acts. First Meeting at Head Burghs. Sheriffs, &c. to intimate same to Commissioners.

AND it is hereby further enacted That Execution shall be done in Scotland for bringing in the said Supply to be raised there as is provided by the same Acts in all Points not altered by this Act and that the First Meeting of the said Commissioners of Shires in Scotland shall be at the respective Head Burghs thereof the Eleventh Day of May One thousand seven hundred and nine And that the Sheriffs Stewards or their Deputies do intimate the same to the Commissioners of their Shires and Stewartries with Power to the said Commissioners to appoint the subsequent Diets of their Meetings and their Conveeners from time to time as also to appoint Collectors with sufficient Caution as they shall think fit.

CVII. Former Acts of Scotland, relating to bringing in Cess, &c. to be in force.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all Clauses contained in former Acts of Parliament of Scotland and Convention of Estates there in relation to the bringing in of the Cess and quartering and touching Ryding Money shall stand in full force as to the Supply now imposed upon Scotland as if they were herein exprest and were observed before the making of this Act

CVIII. No Persons holden to produce Receipts after Three Years, unless Diligence done, &c.

AND it is hereby declared That no Persons whether Heretor or Collector liable in Payment of the said Supply to be raised in Scotland shall be holden to produce their Receipts or Discharges of the same after Three Years from the respective Terms of Payment unless Diligence be done therefore by Denunciation within the said Three Years in which Case of Diligence by Denunciation One Year further is only added to the said Three Years and none shall be holden to produce their Receipts or Discharges thereafter

CIX. Debtor owing Money in Scotland, at £6 per Cent., to retain a Twelfth Part of £6 per Cent. from 11th Nov. 1708 to 11th Nov. 1709. Usury for Creditor to refuse.

AND because by the Supply hereby granted to be raised in Scotland the Land Rents and Burghs there are only burdened and it being reasonable that Personal Estates in Money should bear some proportional Burden Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every Debtor owing Money in Scotland at Six per Cent Interest shall in the Payment of his annual Rents have Retention in his own Hands of a Twelfth Part of Six per Cent and this Retention to be from the Eleventh Day of November One thousand seven hundred and eight to the Eleventh Day of November One thousand seven hundred and nine And it is declared that it shall be Usury for any Creditor to refuse to grant the said Retention there.

CX. The £47,954 18. to be raised in Scotland, free of Charges to Her Majesty; and to be paid at Edinburgh.

AND it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said Sum of Forty seven thousand nine hundred fifty four Pounds and One Shilling shall be raised in Scotland in the respective Shires Stewartries Cities and Burghs free of all Charges to Her Majesty and shall in like Manner be paid at the City of Edinburgh to such Person or Persons as the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being shall constitute or appoint to be the General Receiver or Receivers thereof for Her Majesties Use which said General Receiver or Receivers shall be answerable and accountable for the same to Her Majesty in Her Exchequer

CXI. Sums discharged by the Barons upon any City, to be abated, &c.

AND whereas by several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf the Barons of Her Majesties Exchequer or any Two or more of them were impowered to discharge the Overplus or so much of the Sum by the said Acts charged or chargeable upon any City Borough Town Parish or Place as should exceed the Rate of Four Shillings in the Pound by Occasion of Double Assessments therein mentioned in pursuance of which Acts divers Cities Boroughs Towns Parishes and Places have been discharged by the said Barons of Part of the Sums charged thereon respectively it is hereby declared that the Sums so discharged were and are hereby abated out of the Sums laid on such respective City Borough Town Parish or Place only and shall not be construed or taken to lessen abate or discharge any of the Sums or Proportions to be raised in any County City Borough Town Parish or Place not discharged by virtue of the said Acts and the Commissioners are hereby required to abate the said Sums in Ease of such City Borough Town Parish or Place only so discharged as aforesaid and which still remain burthened therewith and not otherwise

CXII. Essex discharged from the Sum of £90 6s. 1½d.

AND whereas in the several Acts for the Land Taxes for the Years Seventeen hundred and six Seventeen hundred and seven and Seventeen hundred and eight the County of Essex (excluding Maldon Colchester and Harwich and Dover Court) was overcharged the Sum of Ninety Pounds Six Shillings and One Peny Half peny by reason that certain Exonerations allowed by the Barons of the Exchequer pursuant to an Act of Parliament in that Behalf were not so fully deducted out of the Sums set upon the said County as they ought to have been for those Years It is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said Sum of Ninety Pounds Six Shillings and One Peny Half peny shall be allowed and discharged in all Accounts of the Receiver General of the said County wherein the same are or may be charged or chargeable and that the said County or any Part thereof or any the Commissioners or Inhabitants of the same shall not hereafter be liable to the Payment of the said Sum of Ninety Pounds Six Shillings and One Peny Half peny or any Part thereof or any Prosecution for the same Any thing in the said former Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding CXIII. A Register to be kept. The Principal Sums, &c. of Stat. 11 W. III. c. 2.

AND it is also hereby enacted That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer One Book or Register in which all the Orders for Money payable upon this Act shall be entred and registred and that all and every the Principal Sums of Money which were lent upon (1) Land Taxes herein after mentioned (that is to say) by One Act of Parliament made and passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William of glorious Memory and charged on the Aid of Two Shillings in the CHAPTER XVII.

Rot. Parl. 7 Annæ, p. 3. n. 7.

AN ACT for making more effectual an Act made in the Sixth Year of Her Majesties Reign for the better preventing of Mischiefs that may happen by Fire.

Recital of Stat. 6 Ann. c. 58. § 2.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth Year of Her Majesties Reign intituled An Act for the better preventing Mischiefs that happen by Fire it was amongst other Things enacted that each and every Parish within the Cities of London and Westminster and Weekly Bills of Mortality shall from time to time and at all times have and keep in good Order and Repair in some known and publick Place within each Parish a large Engine and also a Hand Engine to throw up Water for the extinguishing of Fires and also provide keep and maintain one Leather Pipe and Socket of the same Size as the Plug or Fire Cock to the Intent the Socket may be put into the Pipe to convey the Water clean and without Loss or Help of the Bucket into the Engine. And forasmuch as several of the Parishes within the said City of London were after the great Fire which happened in the Year One thousand six hundred sixty and six united together or to each other and for that some Doubt hath arisen whether each of the said Parishes so united is not obliged to have and keep Two such Engines Therefore for explaining the same and avoiding of any Dispute or Question that may arise touching the Construction thereof be it declared and enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That the said Parishes so united were intended to be and shall (for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned) be esteemed and taken as One Parish only

Reasons for passing this Act.

United Parishes deemed One Parish.

II. Recital of Stat. 6 Ann. c. 58. § 2.

AND whereas by the said Act a Reward of Ten Shillings is to be paid to the Turn Cock belonging to any Water Work whose Water shall be found on or first come into the Main or Pipe where the first Plug shall be opened at any Fire Thirty Shillings to the first Engine-Keeper which brings in a Parish Engine to help to extinguish any Fire Twenty Shillings to the Keeper of the Second Parish Engine that shall be next brought to a Fire and to the Third Ten Shillings by the Church Wardens of each Parish where such Fire shall happen Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That in all Cases where the said Rewards are claimed by reason of any Fire happening within the said City of London or the Liberties thereof the Church Wardens of the Parish where such Fire shall happen shall not pay the said Rewards or any of them without the Approbation and Direction of the Alderman of the Ward wherein such Parish is situate or his Deputy or Two of the Common Council men of the same Ward for the Time being And that the said several Rewards shall likewise be paid and payable in like Proportion and in the same Manner to the Keeper of any other large Engine (tho' not a Parish Engine) who shall bring in such large Engine to help to extinguish any Fire in good Order and complete Churchwardens not to pay Rewards without the Approbation of The Alderman.

III. Vestries may provide fit Number of Engines.

PROVIDED nevertheless and it is further enacted That in case the Vestries of any of the said United Parishes or of any other Parishes within the Weekly Bills of Mortality shall at any Time conceive it necessary for the said Parish in respect of the Largeness thereof to have more than One great Engine or Hand Engines it shall and may be lawful for them to provide more great Engine or Engines Hand Engine or Hand Engines at the Charge of the Parish by an Assessment to be made as by the said former and this present Act is prescribed and provided and that the same shall be under the like Regulations and Encouragements as the Engine or Engines respectively to be provided by the said former Act were and are to be

IV. Key of Stop Cock, &c. left at House.

AND to the End the said Act may be made more effectual for the Purposes the same was intended it is further enacted That there shall be left at the House upon which there is a Notice of a Fire Plug a Key to open the Stop Cock and also a Pipe for the Water to come thereout to be made use of as Occasion shall require.

V. Vestry may make a Rate for the Purposes aforesaid.

AND whereas there is no Provision made for raising Monies to defray the necessary Charges of providing and maintaining the said Engine or Engines Stop Blocks and Fire Cocks and Keys and other Implements and Materials and Payment of the Rewards or Gratuities directed by the said Act Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the Church Wardens Overseers of the Poor and Inhabitants in a Vestry duly summoned of the several Parishes within the Limits aforesaid shall and may and they are hereby required from time to time (as often as there shall be Occasion) to rate and assess such competent Sum and Sums of Money as shall be needful and requisite for the Ends aforesaid in like Manner as by Law they may do for the Maintenance and Relief of the Poor of their respective Parishes which Rates being allowed and confirmed in like Manner as the Rates made for the Poor are or ought to be shall be collected and levied in the same Manner as the Rates made for the Relief of the Poor by Law now may or ought to be collected and levied subject nevertheless to the like Appeal as in case of Rates made for the Relief of the Poor and the said Officers shall be accountable for the same in like Manner as by Law they are for the Money by them levied and collected for the Relief of the Poor to be collected as Poor's Rate.

VI. Regulations for fixing Fire Plugs.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That where any Stop Blocks of Wood with Plugs or any Fire Cocks have been or shall hereafter be made and fixed upon any Mains and Pipes belonging to any Water Works by virtue of this or the said former Act the Owners of the said Waterworks shall afterwards remove change or alter the said Mains or Pipes then in every such Case the Owners of the said Mains or Pipes shall at their own proper Charges place and fix the same or the like Stop Blocks Plugs and Fire Cocks upon such new Main or Pipe so to be new laid to be placed where the Church Wardens for the Time being of the Parish where the same were placed shall direct and appoint and in such case of Removal the Key and Pipe shall be removed to the House upon which Notice shall be of such Fire Plug

VII. Recital of Stat. 6 Ann. c. 58. § 5.

AND whereas by the said Act it was further enacted That all and every House and Houses that should be erected and built either upon old or new Foundations in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Westminster or other Parishes or Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality shall have Party Walls between House and House wholly of Brick or Stone and of Two Bricks thick at the least in the Celler and Ground Stories and Thirteen Inches thick upwards from the Foundation quite through all the Stories of each House and Eighteen Inches above the Roof and that no Mundillion or Cornish of Timber or Wood under the Eaves should thereafter be made or suffered in any such new House or Houses but that all front and rear Walls of every House and Houses shall be built of Brick or Stone to be carried Two Foot and [an[1]] Half high above the Garret Floor and coped with Stone or Brick Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said recited Clause was not intended or shall be construed to extend to any House or Houses hereafter to be erected and built upon any Part of London Bridge but that the same may be erected and built with Wood and Timber as hath been always hitherto used the said recited Clause or any other Clause in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Construction thereof.

VIII. Regulations for Party Walls, &c.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the First Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and nine all and every House and Houses that shall be erected and built either upon old or new Foundations in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Westminster or other Parishes or Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality (except Houses on London Bridge and on the River of Thames below Bridge) shall have Party Walls between House and House wholly of Brick or Stone except Door-Cases Windows Lentils Breast Summers Story-Posts and Plates of Two Bricks thick at the least in the Cellar and One Brick and an Half thick upwards to the Top of the Garret Floor and all Gable-Ends to be One Brick in Length and Eighteen Inches above the Roof and to have no Beams or Rafters lie or stand or be in the Brick Works of the Gable-Ends

IX. Further Regulations herein;

AND whereas many Suits of Law have been brought about Differences in Party Walls be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all Party-Walls that shall hereafter be built shall be built Nine Inches on each Mans Ground whether the old Party Wall be Brick Stone or Timber and that the first Builders shall have Power to pull down the same and build up the new Party Wall as aforesaid and be paid by the Owner of the next House after the Rate of Five Pounds per Rod as soon as he shall have built the said Party Wall and for all Houses hereafter to be built that will not yield the Rent of Twenty Pounds per Annum more than the Ground Rent to be left to the Discretion of the Builders Provided that all Party Walls for the same be built with Brick

X. and for Chimney Jambs and Backs;

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all Chimney-Jambs and Backs that shall hereafter be erected or built shall be Nine Inches thick from the Cellars to the Roof and all Withs the Inside of such Chimnies shall be Four Inches and an Half in Breadth and all [the[1]] Funnels plaistred or pargetted the Inside from the Bottom to the Top and that all Chimnies be turned or arched under the Hearths with Brick (except upon a Ground Floor) and that no Timber shall lie nearer than Five Inches to any Chimney Funnel or Fire-place and all Mantles between the Jambs arched over with Brick and no Wood or Wainscot shall be placed or affixed to the Front of any Jamb or Mantle of any Chimney nearer than Five Inches from the Inside of such Jamb or Mantle and that all Gable Ends called Nine Inches thick in Party Walls be rendred on the ruffest Side and that all Stoves and Boylers Coppers and Ovens that shall be hereafter set up with Brick or Stone shall not be nearer than Nine Inches at the least to the adjoyning House and no Timber to lie nearer than Five Inches to any Fire Place or Flew and for setting Stoves.

XI. Reasons for passing this Enactment.

AND whereas the distilling of Turpentine and the drawing of Oyl of Turpentine and Rosin by distilling of common Turpentine and the boyling of the said Oyl and Turpentine together for making of common Varnish within the City of London and the Liberties thereof has often been and may hereafter prove of the most dangerous Consequence to the Neighbourhood where such Trade or Practice has been used by the frequent Fires that have and may happen thereby For preventing whereof for the future be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and nine it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to distil or boyl any Turpentine [nor draw any Oyl of Turpentine[2]] and Rosin by distilling of common Turpentine nor boyl the said Oyl and Turpentine together above the Quantity of Ten Gallons at any one Time of all or any the said Commodities within the said City of London and Liberties thereof and the City of Westminster and Borough of Southwark and the Liberties thereof in any Workhouse contiguous to any other Building but shall stand distant from any other Building at least Fifty Foot except such Houses as are already built in Southwark and are at present used for the said Trade [[3]and except the Still[3]] and Furnace

Rot. Parl. 7 Anne, p. 3. n. 19.

AN ACT for the Relief of the Earl of Clanriccard (lately called Lord Bophin) of the Kingdom of Ireland in relation to his Estate and for the more effectual selling or setting the Estate of the said Earl to Protestants.

Recital of Stat. 1 Ann. c. 39. Pr.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty intituled An Act for making Provision for the Protestant Children of the Earl of Clanrickard and the Lord Bophin John Burk then commonly called Lord Bophin and now Earl of Clanrickard in the Kingdom of Ireland was restored to his Blood and Estate in such Manner as is therein mentioned. And it was further enacted That such Protestant Trustees as should be appointed by the Guardians mentioned in the said Act should by Mortgage or Sale of the Manors Lands Tenements and Hereditaments so restored or a competent Part thereof or by Sale of Woods raise and pay into Her Majesties Exchequer in Ireland the Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds of lawful Money of England within the Time and Space of One Year from the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and two in which Mortgages and Sales the said John Earl of Clanrickard was to joyn but by reason of unexpected Difficulties the said Sum could not be raised and paid within the said Time and according to the Direction of the said Act and therefore by another Act made also in the said First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty intituled An Act for advancing the Sale of the forfeited Estates in Ireland and for vesting such as remain unsold by the present Trustees in Her Majesty Her Heires and Successors for such Uses as the same were before vested in the said Trustees And for the more effectual selling and letting the said Estates to Protestants and for explaining several Acts relating to the Lord Bophin and Sir Redmond Everrard it was enacted that it should and might be lawful to and for the [said'] Protestant Trustees by Mortgage or Sale of the said Mannors Lands Tenements and Hereditaments or a competent Part thereof or by Sale of Woods in which Mortgages or Sales the said Lord Bophin was to joyn to raise the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds in Manner following (that is to say) One Third Part of the said Twenty five thousand Pounds with all the Interest in that Time due on or before the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and three and One other Third Part of the said Twenty five thousand Pounds together with all Interest to that Time due on or before the First Day of December One thousand seven hundred and three and the other Third Part of the said Twenty five thousand Pounds together with all the Interest to that Time due on or before the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and four which said several Payments so to be made were to be construed and taken to be as beneficial and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds had been actually paid before the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and three but if Default of Payment should be made of the First Third Part of the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds to be paid at the said First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and three or any Part thereof all the said Premisses mentioned in the said Act for making Provision for the Protestant Children of the Earl of Clanrickard and the Lord Bophin were to be vested in Her Majesty Her Heires and Successors for the Use of the Publick and if Default should be made of Payment of either of the remaining Third Parts of the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds on any the Days and Times appointed for Payment of the same that then and from thenceforth the said Estate to be vested in Her Majesty Her Heires and Successors for the Use of the Publick charged only with such Sums of Money as the said Estate was liable to by the said before recited Act and the Principal and Interest of such Money as should be charged thereon to make the Payments pursuant to that Act

II. Recital that £24,318 11s. 4½d. Part of £25,000, and Interest, had been paid into the Exchequer.

AND whereas towards Satisfaction of the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds and Interest there were paid into the said Exchequer in Ireland for the Use of the Publick by Sale of a considerable Part of the said Estate so restored several Sums of Money amounting together to the Sum of Twenty six thousand three hundred forty five Pounds Two Shillings and Four Pence as Money is valued in Ireland making Twenty four thousand three hundred and eighteen Pounds Eleven Shillings and Four Pence Half penny as Money is valued in England and considerable Sums have been raised out of the Rents and Profits of the said Estate and paid into the Receipt of Her said Majesties Court of Exchequer in Ireland for the Use of the Publick But in regard the Residue only is remaining unpaid of the said Twenty five thousand Pounds which the said John now Earl of Clanrickard and his eldest Son Michael Burk commonly called Lord Dunkellin are willing to pay And it would be a great hardship for the Purchasers and Mortgagees which paid in the said Sum of Twenty four thousand three hundred and eighteen Pounds Eleven Shillings and Four Pence Half penny to be stript of the said Estates sold or mortgaged for the same May it therefore please Your Majesty in tender regard to the said John Earl of Clanrickard and his Children and the Purchasers or Persons that paid the aforesaid Sum that it may be enacted and be it enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Protestant Trustees as are or shall be appointed in such Manner as in and by the first recited Act is directed by Mortgage of the said Manor Lands or Hereditaments now remaining unsold or by Sale or Sales of a competent Part thereof and by Sale of Woods (in which Mortgages or Sales the said John Earl of Clanrickard if living shall joyn) to raise the Residue of the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds and Interest now remaining due and unpaid and pay the same into the Receipt of Her Majesties Exchequer in Ireland and upon compleating the Payment of the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds with Interest after the Rates of Six Pounds per Cent per Annum upon or before the First Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ten either by the said Trustees or by the said John Earl of Clanrickard and Michael Burk or either of them or the Executors or Administrators of either of them the same and the said several Payments which have been made towards the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds with Interest as aforesaid are and shall be construed and taken to be as beneficial and effectual to all Intents and Purposes to and for the said John Earl of Clanrickard and his Children and the said Purchasers and their Heires respectively as if all the said Twenty five thousand Pounds with Interest had been paid at and within the respective Time appointed for the Payment thereof by the aforesaid Acts of Parliament or either of them And all and every the said Manors Lands and Hereditaments restored to the said John Earl of Clanrickard and his said Children by the aforesaid Acts or one of them as aforesaid and the Rents Issues and Profits thereof shall go and be enjoyed respectively by such Person and Persons for such Uses Estate and Estates Intents and Purposes and in such Manner according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Acts as if the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds and Interest had been actually paid at or within the Times of Payment appointed by the said Acts or one or either of them Any thing in the said recited Acts or either of them to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding Protestant Trustees under the said recited Act, empowered to raise the Residue of the said £25,000 and Interest by Sale or Mortgage of the said Estates.

The said Payment of £24,318 11s. 4½d. construed as beneficial to the Earl of Clanriccard, &c. and Purchasers, as if the whole £25,000 and Interest had been paid according to the said Acts, and the said Estates to be enjoyed accordingly, as herein mentioned.

III. The said Estates revested in the Earl, and the said Purchasers subject as herein mentioned.

AND the said Estate and Estates so restored are hereby revested in the said John Earl of Clanrickard and his said Purchasers respectively as if the said Twenty five thousand Pounds had been paid according to the said first mentioned Act subject nevertheless to such Charges Provisoes Savings and Clauses in the said recited Acts or either of them or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the said forfeited Estates in Ireland contained and such other Charges Titles Interests Securities in Possession or other Agreements Incumbrances and Demands either in Law or Equity and all Remedies and Means for the Recovery of the same as such Person or Persons and the Premisses respectively would have been subject or liable to in case the Sales or Mortgages already made or hereafter to be made had been made and the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds and Interest had been fully paid within the Time in that Behalf limitted in and by the said Act intituled An Act for making Provision for the Protestant Children of the Earl of Clanrickard and the Lord Bophin and according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof

Stat. 1 Ann. c. 39. Pr.

IV. The said Earl and Michael Burke entitled to Monies

AND be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said John Earl of Clanrickard and Michael Burk respectively their Executors and Administrators respectively to have and receive to his and their own Use and Benefit all and every Sum and Sums of Money due and arising by Leases, Rents, &c. of the 9th May 1702;

and to the Benefits of Securities, &c.

payable out of the said Estate so restored by or under any Lease or Leases or by or out of the Rents Issues and Profits of the said Manors Lands and Hereditaments so restored or any Part thereof from and after the Ninth Day of May One thousand seven hundred and two and which have not been answered to the Publick and ought to have been paid to the said John Earl of Clanrickard if the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds had been paid according to the said before mentioned Acts of Parliament And for the better recovering and obtaining thereof that the said John Earl of Clanrickard his Executors and Administrators shall have the Benefit of all Bonds and other Securities taken to or for the Use of Her present Majesty or of His late Majesty King William the Third for the paying answering and accompting for the same and to commence and prosecute in the Name of the said John Earl of Clanrickard and Michael Burk and the Survivor of them his Executors and Administrators at his and their own Costs and Charges to and for his and their proper Use and Benefit any Suit or Suits thereupon in any of Her Majesties Courts in the said Kingdom of Ireland

V. General Saving.

SAVING to all and every Person or Persons other than Her Majesty and Her Heires and Successors all such Right Title and Interest of in and to the Premisses and every or any Part thereof and of in and to the Rents Issues and Profits thereof and of every Part thereof as they now have or might have had if this Act had not been made Any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding

VI. Recital of Stat. 1 Ann. c. 26. § 8.

AND whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty intituled An Act for the Relief of the Protestant Purchasers of the forfeited Estates in Ireland it is provided and enacted that no Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion should be capable to purchase either by himself or by any other Person in Trust for him any Lands Tenements or Hereditaments vested in the late Trustees for the Sale of the forfeited Estates in Ireland or any Interest in or out of the same And that all Conveyances of such Lands Tenements and Hereditaments to any Papist or other Person professing the Popish Religion or to any Person in Trust for them should be void and of none effect

VII. And that several Estates vested in the late Trustees had been divested out of them, and been purchased by Papists.

AND whereas several Estates which were vested in the said late Trustees were divested out of them by several Private Acts of Parliament a great Part of which Estates have since been purchased by Papists or in Trust for them who pretend that such Purchases of the Lands Tenements and Hereditaments so divested are not prohibited by the said recited Act

VIII. Recital of Stat. 1 Ann. c. 39. Pr. and 1 Ann. Stat. 2. c. 18. § 9.

AND whereas by Two other Acts of Parliament made in the said First Year of Her Majesties Reign the One intituled An Act for making Provision for the Protestant Children of the Earl of Clanrickard and Lord Bophin the other intituled An Act for advancing the Sale of the forfeited Estates in Ireland and for vesting such as remain unsold in Her Majesty Her Heires and Successors for such Uses as the same were before vested in the said Trustees And for the more effectual selling and setting the said Estates to Protestants and for explaining several Acts relating to the said Lord Bophin and Sir Redmond Everard it was provided and enacted that no Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion should hold occupy or enjoy any of the Honours Lands Tenements or Hereditaments to which the said Lord Bophin or his Issue were restored by the said first mentioned Act under the Penalty therein inflicted

IX. Reasons for passing this Enactment. The aforesaid Purchases, &c. declared void.

AND whereas the good Intentions of the said several Acts have been notoriously eluded by Persons who have purchased in Trust for Papists any of the Lands and Tenements so restored Therefore for inforcing the Execution thereof be it farther enacted and declared That all Sales Confirmations Mortgages and Leases which have been made to any Papist or in Trust for any Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion or hereafter shall be made of any Lands Tenements or Hereditaments in the Kingdom of Ireland which were Once vested in the said [late[1]] Trustees for the Sale of forfeited Estates in Ireland in Possession Reversion or Remainder and which were afterwards divested out of them the said late Trustees and vested in other Persons by any Private Acts of Parliament and all Statutes Merchant and of the Staple Judgments and all Covenants and other Securities whatsoever past perfected or entred into to cover support secure or make good any such Sale Mortgage or Lease or any Interest into or out of the Premisses shall be and are hereby declared null [and[2]] void and of no effect to such Person or Persons so purchasing any of the said Lands or Tenements in Trust for or for the Benefit of any Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion as likewise to any such Papist or Person or to his her or their Heires and Assigns respectively

X. Any Protestant may sue for the said Lands, &c. Proof required in such Action. Verdict and Judgment therein.

AND to the End the good Intention of this and the several former Acts of Parliament for planting the said Estates with Protestants may be effectually complyed with be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That it shall and may be lawful for any Protestant or Protestants by his or their proper Action real or mixt founded upon this Act to sue for any of the said Lands Tenements or Hereditaments in any of Her Majesties superior Courts of Common Law in Dublin And the Plaintiffe or Demandant in such Suit upon Proof that such Sale Lease Mortgage or Incumbrance was made in Trust for any Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion or under any Confidence to or for any Papist or such Person professing the Popish Religion or for their Benefit or Advantage by receiving the Rents Issues or Profits thereof or otherwise shall obtain a Verdict and Judgment thereupon and shall recover the same and have Execution to be put into the Seizin and Possession thereof to hold and enjoy such Lands Tenements and Hereditaments according to the Estate Use Trust Interest or Confidence which such Papist or Person

VI. Duties on Whale Fins of Stat. 9 W. III. c. 45. continued to 1st Aug. 1716;

AND it is hereby further enacted That the several Impositions and Duties for and upon all Whale Fins imported which by an Act of Parliament in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King William the Third (intituled An Act for taking away Half the Duties imposed on Glass Wares and the Whole Duties lately laid on Stone and Earthen Wares and Tobacco Pipes and for granting in lieu thereof new Duties on Whale Fins and Scotch Linen) were granted to His said late Majesty King William and by subsequent Acts already passed have Continuance until the First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and fourteen shall be and are hereby continued and payable to Her Majesty Her Heires and Successors upon all Whale Fins to be imported into Great Britain from the last Day of July One thousand seven hundred and fourteen to the First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and sixteen and no longer and shall be raised levied collected and paid in such Manner and Form and by such Ways and Means and under such Penalties as are mentioned in the said Act for granting the said Impositions on Whale Fins and Scotch Linen which Act with all the Powers Provisoes Penalties Articles and Clauses therein contained or thereby referred to shall continue and be in full force until the said First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and sixteen and shall be applied practised and put in Execution for raising and levying the said Duties on Whale Fins hereby continued and all Arrears thereof as fully and effectually as if all the Clauses Matters and Things therein contained concerning the said Duties on Whale Fins were repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

and the said Act to be in force for collecting the said Duties.

VII. Reasons for passing this Enactment.

AND whereas the said Impositions on Wines Vinegar and Tobacco which were first granted to King James the Second in the First Year of His Reign and the said Impositions on East India Goods and other Goods charged therewith which were first granted to Their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary in the Second Year of Their Reign and the said additional Impositions which were first granted to Them in the Fourth Year of Their Reign and the said Duties on Whale Fins imported which were granted to His said late Majesty King William in the Ninth Year of His Reign were by several subsequent Acts of Parliament continued with some Exceptions and Alterations) as aforesaid until the said First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and fourteen in the Manner therein mentioned and are thereby made subject and liable (together with such other Duties as are therein expressed) to the Satisfaction of several Principal Sums which were borrowed or authorized to be borrowed upon those Acts respectively and the Interest due and to be due for the same (which Principal and Interest are to be duly paid off and discharged in the first Place) Now it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and immediately after the Time that all the Principal and Interest Monies which by the said former Acts or any of them are charged or chargeable on the several Impositions and Duties last particularly mentioned (joyntly with other Duties) as aforesaid shall be fully paid off and satisfied according to the true Meaning of the said former Acts or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that Purpose then all the Monies which from thenceforth shall arise by the said Impositions upon Wines Vinegar and Tobacco which were first granted to King James the Second in the First Year of His Reign and the said Impositions on East India Goods [and other Goods[1]] charged therewith which were first granted to Their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary in the Second Year of Their Reign and the said additional Impositions which were first granted to Them in the Fourth Year of Their Reign and the said Duties on Whale Fins imported which were granted to His late Majesty King William in the Ninth Year of His Reign for the Remainders of the Terms formerly granted and therein then to come and unexpired (except the necessary Charges of raising levying collecting and accounting for the same) shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer distinctly for the Purposes in this Act expressed and for no other Use Intent or Purpose whatsoever

After the Principal Money and Interest charged upon the Duties of the former Acts are discharged, the said Duties appropriated for the Uses of this Act.

VIII. British Copper and Brass Wire to be exported Duty-free.

AND whereas it is found by Experience that the Duties upon the Exportation of Copper of the Produce and Growth of Great Britain and upon Brass Wire made in Great Britain have annually produced very inconsiderable Sums and nevertheless do hinder the Exportation of such Copper and Wire to the Prejudice of this Nation Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That no Subsidies or other Duties shall be due [or[1]] payable by any Act or Acts of Parliament whatsoever upon the Exportation of any such Copper or Wire which from and after the First Day of May One thousand seven hundred and nine shall be exported to or for any Parts beyond the Seas Any Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding

IX. Bank may agree with Treasury to circulate further Exchequer Bills for £612,739, &c.

AND whereas the Governor and Company of the Bank of England have undertaken the Circulation of Exchequer Bills amounting to Two millions and five hundred thousand Pounds for Her Majesties Supply in such Manner and Form and upon such Terms and Advantages as are mentioned or intended by another Act of this Session of Parliament in that Behalf Now it is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England (in case their General Court shall so think fit) to contract and agree at any Time [before the[1]] last Day of December One thousand seven hundred and nine with the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being to circulate (over and above the Bills undertaken to be circulated by the said Act) such further Bills not exceeding Six hundred and twelve thousand seven hundred thirty nine Pounds as shall be made forth at the Exchequer for Her Majesties Supply which further Bills shall bear the like Interest after the Rate of Two Pence per Diem for every One hundred Pounds and the said Governor and Company and their Successors shall have and receive and be entitled to the like Allowance after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum for circulating thereof to be computed from the respective Times of issuing such further Bills

Such Bills to bear Interest of 2d. per Diem;

[1] interlined on the Roll.

and the same Bills shall be received and taken and shall pass and be current in like Manner and Form to all Intents and Purposes and with such Privileges and Advantages and shall be subject to such Rules and Directions as the said Bills to be made forth by the said other Act are thereby directed and appointed And that the several Duties Impositions and Sums of Money by the said other Act made a General Fund and Security as well for Payment of the Interest and Allowance upon the Bills thereby authorized to be issued and for discharging and cancelling the same in the Manner and Form thereby prescribed shall (in case of such Agreement as aforesaid) be also a Fund and Security and be subject and liable in the like Manner and Form for Payment of the like Interest and Allowance upon the said further Bills and for discharging and cancelling the same so as they do not exceed the Sum of Six hundred and twelve thousand seven hundred thirty nine Pounds before-mentioned And that the Governor and Company of the Bank of England and their Successors shall continue a Corporation with all the Powers Priviledges and Advantages thereunto belonging until all the Exchequer Bills to be issued by virtue of this or the said other Act shall be discharged and cancelled Any thing in this or the said other Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding and to be current, &c. as by the said former Act, &c.

and the Duties made a Fund by the said former Act, to be a Fund for the Interest and Allowance upon the said further Bills, &c.

The Bank to continue until such further Bills also cancelled.

Recital of Stat. 1 Ann. c. 21. § 4.

AND whereas by a Clause in an Act of Parliament made in the First Year of Her Majesties Reign intituled An Act for the Importation of Fine Italian Thrown Silk it is provided and enacted that upon the Importation of any Thrown Silk by virtue of the said Act the Importer or Importers shall upon Entry at the Custom-house of the said Goods make Oath before the Commissioners for managing Her Majesties Customs that the said Silk was bought in Italy for his or their Account and shall also at the same Time produce to the said Commissioners his Invoice or Letters of Advice shewing that the said Goods were bought for the proper Account of the Importer or Importers of the same And whereas the administring the said Oath by the Commissioners of the Customs has been found by Experience to be a great Hindrance and Obstruction to the Dispatch of other Merchants Business Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said Oath shall be made before the Collector Customer Comptroller and Surveyor of the Customs in the Port of London or any Two of them [(who are hereby impowered to administer the same)[1]] and the Importer or Importers shall also at the same Time produce to the said Officers or any Two of them his Invoice or Letters of Advice shewing that the said Goods were bought for the proper Account of the Importer or Importers of the same Any thing in the aforesaid recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding

XXI. Officers conniving, Loss of Office, Incapacity, and Imprisonment for Six Months. Master conniving, imprisoned for Six Months, besides all the other Penalties.

AND it is hereby enacted That if any Officer of the Customs shall connive or assist in any Fraud relating to such Certificate Goods as aforesaid such Officer (over and above any other Penalties to which he is or may be liable by this or any other Act shall forfeit his Office and be rendred incapable of serving Her Majesty for the future and suffer Six Months Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprize and if any Master Commander or other Person belonging to any Ship or Vessel shall assist in or connive at the fraudulent landing any such Certificate Goods as aforesaid he she or they (over and above all other Penalties provided by this or any other Act or Acts now in force) shall for every such Offence suffer Imprisonment by the Space of Six Months without Bail or Mainprise

XXII. No Debenture for Tobacco to Ireland to be paid, until a Certificate from Collector, &c. in Ireland, of Landing. Fee.

AND for preventing the running of Tobacco into this Kingdom under Pretence of exporting the same to Ireland be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That no Debenture shall be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported from any Port of Great Britain to the Kingdom of Ireland until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector Comptroller and Surveyor of the Customs of any Port in Ireland or any Two of them where such Goods shall be landed testifying the landing thereof (the Danger of the Seas or Enemies excepted) Any Law to the contrary notwithstanding which Certificate the Collector Comptroller and Searcher of the Customs or any Two of them of each Port in Ireland are impowered and required to deliver forthwith upon the Discharge of such Tobacco and not to take above One Shilling Fee for making out and Delivery of such Certificate

XXIII. Master carrying Certificate Goods to Ireland, to take a Duplicate of his Content from the Collector, &c. No Fee thereon.

AND as a further Security of Her Majesties Revenues both in Great Britain and Ireland be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the Master of every Ship carrying such Certificate Goods to Ireland shall demand and take from the Collector of every respective Port of Great Britain a Duplicate of his Content in Writing certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of such Port (which said Duplicate the Collector and Comptroller of each Port in Great Britain are hereby required to deliver to every Master without Fee or Reward) and such Master shall be obliged to deliver such Duplicate to the Officers of the Customs in Ireland on his Arival before he be permitted to land such Goods there

XXIV. No Debenture for Tobacco exported in any Ship under 20 Tons.

AND whereas an illegal Trade is usually carried on in small Vessels or Boats be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That no Debenture shall be made forth nor any Drawback be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported to any Place in any Ship or Vessel under the Burthen of Twenty Tons Any Law Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding XXV. Recital of Stat. 3 & 4 Ann. c. 3. § 1. Stat. 4 & 5 Ann. c. 18. § 3. Stat. 6 Ann. c. 50. § 5. Currants imported in Venetian Ships, subject to Stat. 3 & 4 Ann. c. 3. § 1.

AND whereas by an Exception or Clause contained in an Act made in the Third Year of Her Majesties Reign (intituled An Act for granting to Her Majesty a further Subsidy on Wines and Merchandizes imported] it was provided that such Corants as should be imported in English built Shipping navigated according to Law should be exempted from paying the Two Thirds Subsidy granted by the said Act And whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the Fourth Year of Her Majesties Reign for continuing an additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage it was amongst other Things enacted and declared that the Exception contained in the aforesaid Act whereby Corants imported in English built Shipping navigated according to Law were exempted from the said Duty should be extended to such Corants as after the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and six should be imported in Ships belonging to any of the Subjects of the Republick of Venice so that they also should be exempted from Payment of the Two Thirds Subsidy granted by the aforesaid Act Any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding And whereas by an Act made in the Sixth Year of Her Majesties Reign for continuing the several Duties therein mentioned the said Two Thirds Subsidys were continued for Three Years from the Seventh Day of March One thousand seven hundred and eight with an Exception as to Corants imported in English built Shipping according to the said Act of the Third Year of Her Majesties Reign and no Notice is taken of the Explanation thereof in the said Act of the Fourth of Her Majesties Reign as to Venetian Shipping also whereby some Doubts have arisen whether Corants imported in Venetian Shipping ought to be exempted from the Continuation of the Two Thirds Subsidy according to the Provision before recited in the said Act of the Fourth Year of Her Majesties Reign extending the Exemption to them For preventing which Doubts and in regard it would be very hard to restrain the Subjects of Venice from importing the Goods of their own Growth in their own Shipping be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said Clause in the Act of the Fourth Year of the Queens Reign for exempting Corants imported in Venetian Shipping from paying the Duty of Two Thirds Subsidy was intended and is to be understood from the Time of passing the same Act to be a perpetual Clause attending the Continuation of that Duty and not limited unto the First Grant thereof Any thing in the said Act of the Sixth or in any other subsequent Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding

XXVI. Recital of Stat. 2 & 3 Ann. c. 18. § 13.

AND whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Second and Third Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty our most gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Anne [intituled An Act for granting to Her Majesty an additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage for Three Years and for laying a further Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize and for ascertaining the Value of unrated Goods imported from the East Indies] it is therein amongst other Things enacted that all English Merchants should from and after the Eighth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and three have Eighteen Months Time allowed them from the Entry Inwards for the Exportation of all Tobacco Sugar Ginger Pepper Bugles Cast and Bar Iron Dying Wood Dying Wares and

Drugs and should have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportations as if the same had been exported within Twelve Months And whereas the Time allowed to Foreigners for Exportation of such Goods is limited to Nine Months which by Experience is found to be too short and very inconvenient to trade Be it therefore Foreign Merchants and their Agents to have 15 Months Time for Exportation of certain Foreign Goods; and the like Drawback, &c.

enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all Foreign Merchants or all British Merchants commissioned by them shall from and after the Seven and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ten have Fifteen Months Time from the Entry Inwards of all Tobacco Sugar Ginger Pepper Bugles Cast and Bar Iron Dying Wood Dying Wares and Drugs (already imported or to be imported) allowed them to export the same and shall have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportation as if the same had been exported within Nine Months according to the Second Rule in the Book of Rates the said Rule or any other Law or Custom now in force relating thereunto notwithstanding provided Certificates be taken forth and Oath made and all other Requisites performed according to the Laws now in being

XXVII. AND whereas the Laws of this Realm do require that for Ships trading to or in Her Majesties Plantations lading Sugars and other enumerated Commodities there Bonds be given which are commonly called Plantation Bonds with Condition to bring the same Goods to Great Britain or to some other of Her Majesties Plantations or to that Effect Now to prevent the Discouragements which Persons trading to and from the said Plantations do or may lie under by the said Bonds lying out against them although the Conditions thereof are or shall have been
